Defendants.)
_____)

Plaintiff has decided not to file an Amended Complaint. A final order dismissing the action may be entered. Plaintiff Wilhite does reserve the right to appeal.

In an editorial comment, Wilhite notes that she first filed an action complaining of retaliation for her whistleblowing activities in the spring of 2018. It took over five years, three separate Rule 12 motions to dismiss, and an appeal to the Ninth Circuit in this action before the action was dismissed with leave to amend. Wilhite is fearful that an amended complaint would only add to delays in a final resolution of the companion FTCA case. To avoid even further delay, Wilhite has decided not to file an Amended Complaint.

Dated this 6th day of July 2023.
